

The Malvern Hills Arts Society Day of Special Interest:

The Genius of Leonardo da Vinci

November 5th 2019

Our speaker, Mr Guy Rooker, will be focussing on Leonardo da Vinci, painter and draughtsman of the High Renaissance; he will provide three sequential lectures, covering the artist's life and works.

As a retired surgeon, Guy Rooker comes to lecturing from the world of Science and, in particular, surgery. In discussion, he likes to explore the common ground between Leonardo's artistic and scientific achievements.

We are grateful to Mrs Alexandra Berington, who is kindly permitting the Society to use the Prior's Hall at Little Malvern Court as a venue for both the lectures and the lunch, which is included in the price.

Cost: £40

Start time: Please arrive from 10am

(first talk starts at 10.30am)

Please complete, detach and hand the opposite page to the organiser of the event.

Booking Form

Name(s): _____

Preferred contact number: _____

Email: _____

Contact in the event of an emergency:

Name: _____

Relationship (Friend/relation etc) _____

Contact phone number: _____

Please tick one of the following:

- I attach a cheque for the amount due or
- I will be paying by Bank Transfer to the TMHAS account. On doing this, please send an email (details below) to advise the organiser that the payment due has been transferred. Please take with you a duplicate of this form for reference, if you choose this method of payment.

Cheques payable to: The Malvern Hills Arts Society

The Society's Bank details:

Please return this form (and make payment) before October 10th.

Previous Days of Special Interest have been oversubscribed and, as in the past, when all places have been allocated further applications will be placed in order of receipt on a waiting list. If places become available, you will be advised by phone/email.

For further information: Hilary Winter hewinter26@hotmail.com