

Further to the announcements at our Meeting on February 26th, I would like to draw to the attention of all Malvern Hills Arts Society members details of future events; two of these will be during or after the end of the current season and the other will appear in the 2020-21 programme.

Summer Party at Hellens Manor in Herefordshire

Wednesday June 24th 2020 from 6.30pm

This is a joint party to be held with Malvern Civic Society and the cost is £25. This includes:

Reception with sparkling wine and canapés, the chance to mingle and enjoy the beautiful Hellens surroundings, the opportunity to see some of the work of the Arts Society Heritage Volunteers and a cold buffet supper in the Barn with wine/soft drinks. Short tours of some of Hellens Manor (for a small additional cost) will also be available.

Further details and the chance to book will be forwarded as soon as possible – it is hoped that tickets will be available at our March meeting. TMHAS is limited to 70 tickets in the first instance.

Day of Special Interest: The Art and Culture of Berlin

Friday September 11th 2020, from 10am – 3pm.

Our speaker will be Clare Ford-Wille, who is a renowned speaker on this topic and who has lectured for TMHAS in the past.

This event will take place at Elmslie House in Malvern. The price is yet to be fixed but will include a 'welcome' coffee, with a light lunch provided by Elmslie House caterers. Further details and booking to be available after Easter. The day is open to all members – not just those participating in the Berlin visit in October. 80 places available

Day of Special Interest: Beethoven 250

Thursday November 11th 2020, from 10am – 3pm.

Our speaker will be Sandy Burnett, a former Radio 3 presenter and a well-versed speaker on this subject. 2020 marks the 250th anniversary of Beethoven's birth.

This event takes place by kind permission of Mrs Alexandra Berington, at Little Malvern Court. Further details will be available in the MHAS 2020-21 programme, to be distributed later in the year. Booking to take place from our first meeting in September – 40 places available.
